DISCUSS RELIEF WORK

Society Expects to Realize $4,000 on the Sale of Seals This Year

Predicting that within a few years the American Red Cross will have obtained the additional $200,000 needed for the erection of a beautiful memorial building in this city to the heroic women of the North and South.

Miss Isabel Boardman addressed the annual meeting of the local chapter of the Red Cross Society, at her home, 1361 P Street Northwest, yesterday, and gave a resume of the work done by the national organization during the last year. Miss Boardman also cited the need in this city of a building for the local needs of the Red

Rear Admiral N. E. Mason was re-elected chairman of the chapter; Maj. Gen. G. B. Davis and H. B. F. Macfarland, vice chairmen; Mrs. T. K. McLaughlin, secretary, and Howard S.

Besides Miss Boardman, J. W. Macraider, general secretary of the Fed-ated Carities of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Jane Delano, in charge of the Red Cross nursing service, also made addresses. Mrs. W. J. Boardman, of the committee on day camp and Christmas seals, reported that more than $2,700 was collected last year through the sale of Christmas seals. She said that the chapter expected to realize about $4,000 by the sale of seals this year.

Society in Balkan War.

Miss Boardman, in outlining the work done by the Red Cross during the year, told of the part the society played in the

Among the diplomats received by Secretary Bryan yesterday were the Ministers from five Central American governments, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, and Panama.

The uncertainty that confronts the United States in regard to a policy based on the support of all the European nations now engaged in the war, she said,

"In nearly every instance families separated by the ship fire and wreck," the report states, "the government will not under any circumstances seek the aid of the governments on the other side of the Atlantic. If they acquiesce in the policy of the United States it will have to be voluntary. President Wilson is determined to maintain the traditional policy of this government in taking the leadership in the

In defining extra work which the National Boardman declared that it was the aim of the society to inaugurate relief and first-aid work among the workmen in the lumbering interests of the country.

"If we can judge from the statistics taken in the State of Washington the loss of life and limb to lumbermen in this country is appalling," she said. "Probably 2,000 of these men are killed every year, at least 70,000 injured, and from 10,000 to 12,000 permanently injured. You can see what work can be accom-lished among these men if we inaugurate the same system of rescue and relief, namely that the system is to be maintained.

President to Address Meeting.

Miss Boardman outlined the program of the meeting of the national body of the Red Cross, which will take place in this city. President Wilson, she said would be the principal speaker at the first session of the body. Gov. Cox of Ohio, Victor Rosewater, the Nebraska editor; Secretary of Labor Wilson, and other men prominent in nautical affairs, would also make addresses.

Mr. Magruder confined his remarks to the work done by the Red Cross in the Ohio flood. He was in charge of the relief food at Hamilton, Ohio, during the flood, and gave an interesting talk on how the rescue and relief of the thousands of distressed people was accomplished.

Senator Hitchcock made a speech against a currency crisis and against

The following members were elected as an executive committee for the ensuing year: Admiral N. E. Mason, Maj. Gen. G. B. Davis, H. B. F. Macfarland, H. R. Reeside, Mrs. T. N. McLaughlin, C. C. Glover, Jr., Mrs. W. J. Boardman, Simon

POACHER IS SHOT DEAD.

Quarrel About Traps.

West HARTEN, Vt., Nov. 16.—William Koch, held here on the charge of shooting Charles Gordon, a hunter, during a dispute today over traps which Gordon had set on Koch's farm, admitted he did the shooting, but claims it was accidental.

Gordon died on his way to the hospital after Koch had summoned three physicians to his cabin from Whitehall, N. Y., to attend him.

Gordon lived alone in a houseboat on Lake Champlain. When he rowed to the shore to get a few acres of corn and trap on Koch's farm, the owner of the farm discovered him and ordered him to leave. When he refused, he was shot and received a serious bullet in the chest.
